Research Colloquium in Extra-European and Global History

The fortnightly colloquium provides a forum for doctoral students, postdoctoral researchers and established scholars to present and discuss their work in progress. The colloquium addresses scholars and students of history, area studies and related disciplines in the first place, but is also open to interested ETH students from different backgrounds who want to get an insight into the themes and currents of global history.

Time: Thursday, 18:15-19:45,
Dates: 4.10.18, 25.10.18, 15.11.18, 6.12.18
Location: ETHZ, Chair for History of the Modern World, Clausiusstrasse 59, 8092 Zurich, RZ G21
Organizers: Prof. Harald Fischer-Tiné (harald.fischertine@gess.ethz.ch)
Prof. Dr. Martin Dusinberre (martin.dusinberre@hist.uzh.ch)
Office: BéatriceSchatzmann-von Aesch (beatrice.schatzmann@gmw.gess.ethz.ch)
Programme

October 4, 2018

Prof. Dr. Nadin Heé (Freie Universität Berlin, Germany)
“How Tuna became a Global Commons: Transimperial Knowledge Politics and Sustained Ocean Regimes”

October 25, 2018

Prof. Dr. Mathew Parnell (The American University in Cairo) “Investigating Egypt’s ‘New’ Youth: Novel Constructions and Experiences of Young People in Egypt’s Modern History”

November 15, 2018

Prof. Dr. Ravi Ahuja (Georg-August-University Göttingen, Germany)
“The ‘Natives’ of the S. S. ‘Egypt’: Racial Management and Steamship Labour in the British Empire”

December 6, 2018

Prof. Dr. Ulrike Freitag (Leibniz-Zentrum Moderner Orient, Berlin, Germany)
“Hospitality for the ‘Guests of God’: Pilgrimage and Cosmopolitanism in the Port City of Jeddah”

We would like to draw your attention to two “extra”-colloquium lectures offered by the University of Zurich (16.15 hrs, room number to be announced):

November 29, 2018

Prof. Dr. William Thomas (University of Nebraska) to be announced

December 10, 2018

Prof. Fuyuko Matsukata (University of Tokyo) to be announced